Print smart

Pages are mostly white to save ink.
Print only the games you need.
Card stock makes cards last for years.

Pick your size

Use the US Letter file in the US/Canada and the A4 file everywhere else. Choose "Fit to page" if your printer asks.

Short on time?

Turn the page: the Party Plans tell you exactly which games to play, in what order, for how long.

Quick-Start Checklist

Tick it off the night before

- ☐ Choose a party plan (previous page)
- ☐ Print the pages for those games (card stock for cards)
- ☐ Cut out cards, tiles and slips
- ☐ Fill the candy jar and count it (write the number here: _____)
- ☐ Put bingo markers in small cups
- ☐ Print 1 trivia answer sheet per team
- ☐ Print 1 Spooky Categories sheet per player
- ☐ Print award certificates and fill in the winners on the night
- ☐ Set a timer and have fun!

Tip: laminate the bingo cards or slip them in sheet protectors and use dry-erase markers to play again next year.

Spooky Picture Bingo

30 different cards · pictures + words, so even little ones who can't read yet can play

How to play

1. Give every player a card and a handful of candy corn or wrapped candies as markers.
2. Cut out the caller tiles below, fold them and put them in a bowl or hat.
3. Draw one tile at a time and call it out. Players cover that picture if it is on their card.
4. The center GHOST square is free. First to cover 5 in a row (across, down or diagonal) shouts "BOO!" and wins.
5. Next rounds: play "four corners", "letter X" or "blackout" (cover the whole card).

Two Truths & a Spooky Lie

Great icebreaker for office and grown-up parties

How to play

1. Each guest fills a card with 2 true Halloween stories and 1 made-up one.
2. Take turns reading all 3 out loud. Everyone votes on the lie.
3. Fool the room = 2 points. Spot the lie = 1 point.
